Lee Roy Selmon's Announces New "Google-tini" Cocktail in Support of Sarasota Google Fiber Initiative

For Immediate Release: Sarasota, FL (March 9, 2010) Lee Roy Selmon's wants America—and Google—to know that Sarasota is serious about getting its Fiber—Google Fiber, that is! In support of "Google Island," and Sarasota's energetic push to bring Google's new ultra-high-speed broadband Internet service to Sarasota, Florida, Lee Roy Selmon's Sports Restaurant and Bar has created the perfect cocktail to lure Google to our tropical paradise and toast to all the great reasons Sarasota deserves Google Fiber.

The "Google-tini" is a delicious mix of pomegranate vodka, passion fruit, and a few secret ingredients that Lee Roy Selmon will personally share when Google announces that Sarasota has been selected as Fiber Central. (Hey, they named an expressway after NFL Hall of Fame great Lee Roy Selmon; the least he can do is create a special cocktail for the Google Fiber team and the people of Sarasota that support this initiative and have always supported him.)

Lee Roy's tagline is "Cheer hard, eat well, and don't forget to share." Hey, Google: We want you to play hard, eat well and share your Google Fiber in Sarasota!
